Winemaker Notes

Intense purple with violet tones. Concentrated aromas of red berries, plums, cherries and raisins, highlighted by notes of toast, coconut and vanilla from aging in new French oak barrels. In the mouth the wine reveals its best attributes with a sweet entry, soft and intense tannins that give creaminess, volume and meatiness. The flavors of ripe fruit stand perfectly amalgamated with spicy and smoky wood, leaving a pleasant and persistent finish.

Pair with typical Argentine dishes, grilled meats, to the dough or clay oven. Stews and smoked meats.

Critical Acclaim

JS 91

James Suckling

A soft and fruity red with blackberry and blueberry character. Juicy. Easy and round textured. Lovely finish.
